TODAY'S GAME

By GEORGE RAILTON

ONCE again the San Francisco Dons and the Galloping Gaels meet to settle the argument as to which school has the better football team. To date the Dons have been a bitter disappointment to their followers. Three games and three losses is the San Francisco University football record as the grid season opens the fourth week.

Saint Mary's come on the field stinging from the bitter disappointment of last Saturday's game. The Moragans are still undefeated and that will be their season goal. Today starts their fight against costly fumbles, today will be the day the Gaels will act like the football team that upset the best elevens of the country in 1931.

The game should be a bitter fight from start to finish. Saint Mary's line, still one of the strongest forward walls ever to be coached by Madigan, will probably play havoc with the the Warner style of play. While the Gael backs will probably show their season's best in playing the secondary defense.

For the Dons, Higuera should star on the defense as he has done in the past. Warford should be another star of the San Franciscans before the final gun ends the contest. In the offensive style of playing the Dons have shown very little since the opening of the season, which leads one to believe they are set of the Gaels. Donadio, the speed burner par excellence, will probably play more than his share of the contest and thrill the fans with spectacular punt returns.

Then the "Sassy Saints" in the backfield for the Gaels should come through with a bang today. Brovelli, Baird, Beasley, Dodson, Partee, Wilson, Ahern and Nichelini all should be running in high. Keyed up with a fighting spirit to redeem the fumbles of last week, should make the Moragan's offensive click like never before.

Another thing about today's game is the fact that Coach "Spud" Lewis has had one week longer to work on the system of playing, which he has brought to the Dons. When Saint Mary's took off the wraps last Saturday against the Bears, don't think the Dons were not at the game. Pads and pencils were probably also present with the Dons last Saturday.

Few fans will forget the scare the Hilltoppers gave the Gaels last year. It was the first part of the game when Warford galloped some 30 yards for the opening touchdown of the contest. It was the first time that the Don had ever scored on the Gael, and this year the desire for another score will be twice as great.

A new Saint Mary's starting lineup for today's game is a result of last week's terrific struggle in the first half, a fight against six bad breaks and the keeping of the Bears from the goal line.

George Canrinus will start the contest at left end, replacing the veteran Vivaldi. At left guard Bill Carpenter, last year's captain of the "Flying A's," will get the call for left guard, while Mervyn Yates will start at center for the second time this season.

In the backfield for the Gaels there will be Allen Nichelini taking over Angel Brovelli's place at right half, while Slip Madigan is doubtful as to whether Charlie Baird or George Wilson will get the call for left halfback. George Dodson is scheduled to be at fullback and Captain Bill Beasley will start calling the signals.

The instructions for the Gaels will be: "Get the ball and go." Their playing will be of an absolute offensive nature and the idea of point getting will be kept in mind throughout the contest. On the other side of the field the Hilltoppers will probably be fired up with the same instructions.

It should be a great game with both the teams fighting every inch of the way, but the superior strength of the Gaels will be a telling factor. Passing will be in order and both teams will surprise the fans with the air attack. George Canrinus and his brother Fred will take care of the Saints' pass catching, while Jack Gaddy and Donadio will do the pass snagging for the Dons.

An interesting fact worth noting is that Angel Brovelli's understudy, Allen Nichelini, has scored three touchdowns so far this season. His scores came in the Army, Nevada, and California games. George Wilson is also up with the rest of the boys in the scoring column. He tallied twice in the Nevada game.

The Gaels Against S.F.U.

LAST YEAR, a determined S. F. U. squad broke the ice and put across a touchdown on the Gaels, the first in the history of the games between the two teams. It was a tough battle from start to finish with many brilliant plays on both sides, and St. Mary's, conquerors of the strongest eleven in the nation, knew they had been in a real battle when it was all over.

Today—finds these squads prepared for another great battle and it is certain there will again be many thrilling moments for the partisans of both teams.
