Vol. 68 No. 19 Official Publication of the Associated Students of Saint Mary's College Friday April 21, 1972

Voter Registration

by Jerry Rossillon

"Hi! Have you registered to vote yet?" With perhaps occasional modification, this inquiry was repeated hundreds of times in the Brickpile, De La Salle Foyer and Quad, and through the hallowed residence halls of SMC as the volunteer Deputy Registrars of Voters canvassed the campus registering voters for the June 6 California Primary Election and the subsequent November 7 Presidential and State General Election.

Bob Tenton, representing Contra Costa County and the McGovern for President Committee; Dave Plotz, representing Alameda County and the McGovern Committee; Janet Kassouf, representing Alameda County, F. H. "Pete" Stark for Eighth District U. S. Congress Committee, and the McGovern Committee; and myself, representing Alameda County and, informally, the Ban the Span-No on Proposition A (Southern Crossing bridge) effort; worked through Thursday, the 13th, the last day for registration before the Primary, accommodating people who had not yet registered.

The provision in the State election code allowing the registration for residents of any California county by any other county's registrar or deputy registrar in cases when returning to one's own county would have been a hardship during the last seven days of registration, and the ruling that California students may register either from their parents' residence or their college address (but not both, of course) made a high total registration possible. In all, about 200 persons here were signed up by the effort (not counting those who had been previously registered).

I have read where the American Civil Liberties Union, the League of Women Voters, and other organizations have criticized other states, and in some cases, filed suit over voter registration practices that have been considered unfair by the groups and deemed by them unfair and hindering to voter sign-up. California, by contrast, has made it very easy for potential electors to register.

Final Concert To Be Held Next Week

A duo of renowned musicians, violinist Josef Suk and Joerg Demus, pianist, will conclude the 1971-72 Saint Mary's College chamber concert series on Saturday, April 29, at 8:30 p.m. in Dryden Hall.

Suk is a native of Prague, Czechoslovakia and is regarded by many critics as one of the best known violinists of this generation. A great grandson of Antonin Dvorak, his repertoire ranges from the classics to the most contemporary. His performance of Debussy and Janacek, for which he received the Grand Prix du Disque in 1960, is outstanding and will be part of the forthcoming program.

Demus has been acclaimed as a full, mature pianist of impeccable taste, who offers his audiences musical events of uncommon stature. He is the "complete" artist and is equally at home as a recitalist, as a soloist with more than 70 major orchestras throughout the world, as a recital collaborator, and as a recording artist of over 70 albums.

Included in the program are Sonata for Violin and Piano by Paul Hindemith and Richard Strauss' Sonata for Violin and Piano. Following the intermission, Sonata for Violin and Piano by L. Janacek and Sonata in G Minor for Violin and Piano by Claude Debussy will be offered.

Tickets for this final concert cost $3 for adults and $2 for students. Saint Mary's College students are admitted free.

'A Lion in Winter'

On May 5, 6, 7 the Saint Mary's Players will present "A Lion in Winter", under the direction of Brother V. Matthew Benney.

This drama of England in the Middle Ages and the royal family and its rivalries stars Meg Pierce as Queen Elenor and Steve Gonia as Henry IV. The sons are played by David Bushnell as Prince John, Michael Sullivan as Prince Richard, and Norman Denning as Prince Geoffrey. The King of France is played by Leonard DeGillipis, and Henry's mistress Allais is played by Kathy Zann.

The play is well into production, and with a cast of veteran actors it should prove to be another in a tradition of very successfull campus productions.

Admission is free to all S.M.C. students.

Not so long ago, we ran this picture with the following cut-line: "Student Body President Mike Kelly soon discovered that some people were upset about proposed cuts in "The Collegian" budget." Well our budget was cut from a proposed $3200, last years spring semester allocation was $4500, to $2200, now ASK YOURSELF THIS QUESTION, WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME I SAW MIKE KELLY?

Household Hints

by Michael Welch

Here we go again folks, venturing into the wilds of the unknown. This week, I plan to rap about something unto all of us. That is, hints on how to clean up your act. Needless to say, due to the imperfections of man, we all could stand a little of this. So after some widespread conversing with varied kinds of folk, I'll attempt to lay a format that will remain simple and to the point.

Allright, now the first and hardest part of the whole ordeal, is to actually decide to do it. Now I know that sometimes, usually in the midst of a hangover, we all tell ourselves that we're going to clean our act up. But it seems that the next day or two, we're back to our same old nasty habits. Personally, I can't offer a suggestion on continuation of the delivered change, only that you've got to stick with it.

Now for areas in which this personality progression are to be aimed at, look first at your accomplishments and failures. The failure department of course is the one to be dealt with. If for example, say you've been meaning to do something for some time, but have avoided it either consciously or unconsciously, then do it. Force yourself to accomplish things that you haven't been able to do. This could not only apply toward personal chores or school, but also relationships, personal or impersonal. People to whom you've avoided because of personal constructs which you may hold against them, are targets for your revised actions. For if you remove your shell of intollerance, I'm sure that they'll eventually remove theirs.

Well, enough preaching. Sometimes I hate to get hot and heavy over a subject; unless I feel a certain need to do so. It just seems lately that the way people are reacting within this community, we all could stand to clean up our acts a bit. Maybe it's an impossibility, but I hope not. Lets please try to get it together brothers and sisters. Until next week, keep peace in the family.

Neumeyer Lecture

An illustrated lecture entitled "The Spirit of Colonial Portraiture in America" will be presented by Dr. Alfred Neumeyer, professor of art history at Saint Mary's College, on Monday, April 24, at 8 p.m. in Dryden Reception Hall on the Moraga campus.

Dr. Neumeyer's lecture will be of particular interest to students of American civilization. Among the subjects to be covered during the discourse will be the role of the artist in Colonial America as well as the expectations of the public.

The lecture will trace the transmission of European fashions and patterns and their translation into the provincial style of America. The growth of American painting will be shown in two areas; the children portrait and the emerging of a middle class portrait.

Dr. Neumeyer will demonstrate the apex of achievement during this period through the works of Copley and the reflection of the Age of Enlightenment in the sentimental and the learned portrait, both typical of the age of Rousseau.

THE ANSWER MAN

He has the right answers
if you have the right questions.

Q. Is it true that the U.S. is much easier on drunk drivers than other countries? Worried Traveler.

A. Compared to other countries the U.S. treats drunk drivers with kid gloves. In Australia the names of drunk drivers are sent to the local newspapers and are printed under the heading "He's Drunk and in Jail." In Malaya the drunk driver is jailed, if he is married his wife goes to jail too. In South Africa the driver is given a 10 year prison sentence a fine of $2800, or both. And here is my favorite, in San Salvador drunk drivers are executed by a firing squad.

Q. Is it true that tuition is going up again next year?
A. Yes tuition will increase. A projection of $2050 will probably be revised slightly downward. My guess is that we will pay $2,000 in tuition next year.

Q. What is a "Yahoo"?
A. Next question.

Q. Why hasn't there been an issue of the Collegian for almost a month?

A. Due to budget cuts there will be only two issues, including this one, for the remainder of the year. Not much anyone could do about it, all budgets were cut.

Q. Is it true that the food service managers eat all of their meals off-campus?
A. If they don't they should.

Q. I'm a Saint Mary's co-ed. I'm pretty, intelligent, charming, witty, and fun. How come no one ever asks me for a date?

A. Maybe you aren't a) as pretty, b) as intelligent, c) as charming, d) as witty, e) as fun, f) all of the above, as you think you are.

Q. Last week my seminar teacher told me that man is doomed. Say it isn't so.
A. Man may not be doomed but your seminar teacher might be.

Q. I'm a prospective Saint Mary's co-ed. What is the boy-girl ratio at Saint Mary's College and what degrees does the college confer?

A. The boy-girl ratio is 5-2, with 2 per cent undecided. SMC awards B.S., B.A. and M.R.S. degrees

MC: Dennis, tell me, what's wrong with you guys? Why haven't you cats gone F.M. yet?

DR: The application is taking a....hell of a long time. There's a lot of legal bull we have to go through. We have all the equipment to go F.M. but the application is 60 pages long with 17 map sections. So, we're working on it. It's just going to take time.

MC: Well, we've waited this long we can wait a little longer. How do you select the D.J.'s?

DR: I don't want to answer that.

MC: What do you mean?

DR: You can quote me as saying we have a lot of personnel problems. I really don't want to answer that question. Actually it's a club on campus for anybody who's interested.

Programs

MC: Are you running any special programs?

DR: Yea, but having trouble getting them started. We broadcast home baseball games, language tapes, a lot of lectures. We also tape and broadcast poetry readings, cultural events...

MC: Like the ground breaking?

DR: Sure. And information programs, special programs addressed to minority students and we're also broadcasting broadcasting Shakespearian plays. None of these programs are solidified yet but when they are we will have a schedule out. Like I said we're having problems but goddamn it we're going to do it. There will be a published schedule of the Shakespearian plays next week.

Allocations

MC: Any problems getting money allocated to K.S.M.C.?

DR: Sure, we always have problems. We need twice as much money. We ask for four thousand bucks from the student body and two thousand from the administration. But we all know that the two grand wasn't considered. We need equipment. The stuff down there is ancient. All we can do is sit on our hands and wait for money. They are always late in allocating the money and we never know how much we're going to get. We need at least two tape recorders, one for the station and one for taping. We need a new transmitter and a new board. The one we have is in real poor shape. It's worn out. We've had it for 14 years and it's been a good board, but show me a car that can last for 14 years.

Future

MC: And what about the future?

DR: We're struggling and we have to keep struggling. It seems like people are waiting around for us to prove ourselves but we can't do it without the money or equipment. We are looking forward to going F.M. and broadcasting away baseball games. Well, that was it radio freaks. Keep your ears tuned to K.S.M.C. and maybe if we're lucky the F.M. side instead of the old A.M.
